ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

An initial appearance, arraignment, and detention hearing were held in this case on July 24, 2006. Tracy Stone, Assistant United States Attorney, was present representing the government, and Paula Voss, Assistant Federal Defender, was present representing the defendant. Before the detention hearing began, counsel for the defendant stated that the defendant wished to waive his right to a detention hearing at this time because of outstanding state charges but reserved the right to have a detention hearing at a later date, if appropriate. Pursuant to the defendant signing a Waiver of Detention Hearing, the defendant is to be detained. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)(B). The government stated it had no objections. The defendant was present. For good cause, and by agreement of the defendant, this detention hearing is waived and the defendant is detained.

The defendant is aware of his rights to a prompt detention hearing and to require the government to meet its burden of proving that no conditions of release exist which will reasonably assure his appearance in court and the safety of the community. The
